

The doubling method generates all 64 hexagrams in six steps yang = unbroken line, yin = broken line; the new line is added at the bottom

each step splits every symbol in two by adding one line beneath it: $|G(n)| = 2 |G(n - 1)|$

Node counts are len(encoding.doubling_bottom(n)), cross-checked against encoding.brute_force_enumeration(n).